

INFORMATION BULLETIN No. 121

Countries Recognised by The Bahamas in Accordance with STCW Regulation I/10

Guidance and Instructions for Bahamas Recognised Organisations, Bahamas Approved Nautical Inspectors, Ship Owners, Managers, Masters, Seafarers, Recruitment & Placement Service and Training Provider

1. Purpose

- 1.1. This Bulletin provides guidance on the countries with which The Bahamas has signed an agreement, in accordance with the provisions of Regulation I/10 of The International Convention on Standards of Training, Certification and Watch-keeping for Seafarers, 1978, as amended (STCW), to recognise certificates and issue Bahamas Flag State Endorsements (FSE) to a Master, Officer, GMDSS Radio Operator or other applicable seafarer, who are certified by the recognised country.
- 1.2. This Bulletin should be read in conjunction with IMO MSC.1/Circ. 1163 as revised, BMA Information Bulletin Nos. 86, 103, 104, 105, 106, 118, 127, 130, 137, 140, 147 and any other BMA Information Bulletins relating to training and certification of seafarers.

2. Application and interpretation

2.1. This Bulletin applies to:

- i. All Bahamian ships to which STCW is applicable;
- ii. All persons serving or intending to serve on Bahamian ships to which STCW is applicable and whom require a STCW FSE;
- iii. Companies employing, recruiting or selecting the seafarers noted above, for service on board Bahamian ships.

3. General

- 3.1 The list of countries recognised by The Bahamas is contained in the Annex.
- 3.2 All parties should note that the process for recognition can only be carried with a country, or the Maritime Administration acting on behalf of a country, that is party to STCW.
- 3.3 A Company seeking to employ a person as noted in 2.1 who has a certificate from a STCW country that is not recognized by The Bahamas should engage with that country.
- 3.3 Notwithstanding that a country is party to STCW, it remains the prerogative of The Bahamas as to whether an STCW recognition agreement will be entered into with a country and if so, the conditions relating to the same.

4. Queries

Any queries in relation to STCW recognition can be directed to the BMA at stcw@bahamasmaritime.com.
