83 Amendments to 74 SOLAS for the existing ships flying other than Japanese flag

NK TECHNICAL INFORMATION

No. 93

Date: 13 May 1991

To Shipowners concerned

As the due date, 1st July, 1991, for the existing ships to comply with applicable requirements of the captioned Amendments approaches, we would like to advise you of survey and certification for confirmation of the compliance, further to the guidances provided in NK Technical Information No.77 dated 30th June, 1989.

1. Survey for confirmation of the compliance

In order to confirm the compliance with the requirements, we would like to suggest your requesting us to carry out a survey by 1st July, 1991 as a part of a periodical survey of Safety Equipment taking the opportunity or as an occasional survey.

2. Certification

When the compliance is confirmed, the attended surveyor will deal with the ship's Safety Equipment certificate as follows.

- 1) In case where the ship has a final SE certificate with the Note
"This certificate ceases to be valid on 1st July, 1991 unless the requirements according to Reg. 1.6 of Chap.III of 83 Amendments to 74 SOLAS are fulfilled.", he will put therebelow the statement:
"The undersigned found that the abovementioned requirements had been fulfilled." with his signature, except those cases mentioned in 2)b) below.

2) In the following cases, he will issue a short term SE certificate, which is to be followed by issuance of a final one by the society's head office unless the short term certificate is conditional.

a) The ship has a SE certificate other than a final one with the Note

b) Although the ship has a final SE certificate with the Note,

i) there is a change in the particulars of the equipments shown in the certificate such as the number of liferaft, or

ii) the shipowner prefers to issuance of a fresh short term certificate rather than dealing with the existing certificate as mentioned in 1) above.

3. Fee for issuance of certificate

Fees for the issuance of the certificate mentioned in 2.2) above will not be charged except the cases where there is a change in the particulars of the equipments shown in the certificate.
